“ I feel so fortunate to have been able to have our lives cross paths. Andrew is very dear to me and touched the lives of many. His infectious smile lit up the room. I remember the very 1st day I was trusted to enter your home Alexis and Aaron. I saw his love for his dog short legs. I am grateful for your trust in letting me care for your father. What an amazing man. One of the best parts of my day would be seeing his smile and have him tell me "slow down baby girl, you are going to fast." Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend his funeral, but know I am sending my thoughts and prayers to you all. 🙏 Melissa A.

“ Andrew was such a ray of sunshine. He was a family man and loved his boys. He was just glowing when he first got the news that he was going to be a grandpa. Andrew lit up every time he saw his granddaughter and would talk about “babysitting” her. You could see his heart melt in his beautiful eyes.

Andrew was a proud veteran. I always thanked him for his service and it was the very least I could do for him. I was able to arrange recognition for him and he wore his veteran charm almost daily.

That is the picture I posted. He tried to teach me the army march in boot camp but would just laugh and say “stick with me baby and you’ll do alright” although he was laughing until there were tears. Andrew was a great singer! He was always humming or singing a tune. He knew all the words!

Andrew was the best dressed man I have ever met in a facility. He would wear leather cowboy boots with a heel until he could barely walk! Dress shirts, suits and his love for hats, he was FLY!

He was a great artist, he loved to draw and color. He paid attention to detail and knew exactly the right color to finish a project. He was one of the best to help put a puzzle together. He could be so patient with those little puzzle pieces and he would remind me to slow down.

He loved being outside. He would care for the facility patio area. Sweep, clean tables, rearrange the wind chimes, and overwater the plants.

I could go on and on about Andrew, and I will dearly miss him. He was very special to me and I could tell he was well loved. It was a honor caring for him and for his family having trust that I would provide him with a safe meaningful life. I am so sad I will have to miss his funeral. I want Aaron, Ariel, Alexis and that little grand baby to know, I am thinking of you, I am so sorry, and I will miss him too. I hope all the memories of him can provide you with some comfort. I know my memories will keep me smiling. Please take care and thank you for sharing your dad with me. Joelle K
