“ This was a man that understood the importance of being a father a good friend who was loyal and understanding. He was someone that took time out of his day to help those in need without asking for anything in return. Everything I've learned about being independent, strong, hard working, caring, determined and more..came from Anthony. My father was the best! Family meant everything to him. I know he will feel the love from everybody that has loved him, adored him and respected him as we all come together and celebrate who he was. He will be truly missed! My dad was one of a kind and everybody that met him knew he was as well. We love you dad!

“ Our father was truly the best person in the world. The best father anybody could ever ask for our father was just an all-around genuine human being, who loved life and wanted to live it to the fullest! I know life will not be the same with you not here. But I know I gained a guardian angel who will be watching over all of us. my best friend my everything he will truly be missed. Love you dad ❤️
