“ I am going to miss my sister, Mae, from our family gatherings, our girls trip, and our Cage Family Bible studies. I will miss calling her early in the morning and asking “Are you busy.” She would always respond, “No, I just finished studying my Word.” She was a lover of the Word of God. She not only studied the Word, but she lived it outward. Mae had a relationship with God and she knew Jesus Christ and that “by His stripes, she was healed.” Her life was a testament of the Holy Spirit guidance and direction. Others saw her dedication to God and her faith that she stood on until the end. We will forever praise God for saving her and giving her to our family. We hold our sister’s memories and examples of faith dear to our heart. All praise to God, Mae is present with God, in Paradise. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
