“ Barb was a wonderful and faithful friend. We shared a house together in Nicaragua in the 1980s and had some good times and adventures together. I will greatly miss her. I send my condolences to her surviving family members and her friends.

“ Barb was a devoted friend and a true Minnesotan. She was committed to justice and human rights and supported many causes dedicated to freedom and dignity. Her voice will be missed but she leaves a legacy of her strong commitment to the human community globally.

Barb lived in the same apartment complex as I, and, although I didn't know her particularly well, I always found her to be a very nice person. I took it upon myself to bring in her newspaper each morning for a couple of years prior to her passing. I didn't want her to slip and fall on our outside entryway steps which were sometimes covered in ice during the winter. May she forever rest in peace.

Barb and I worked together for many years. I remember helping her pack to go back home to Minnesota
