

Brenda Joyce Trulove

July 11, 1950 - April 14, 2022

Brenda Joyce (Alexander) Trulove was born on July 11, 1950, in Monroe, Louisiana to Gloria Dean Warfield and Guster Mitchell. Brenda was the second of two children, and just one year younger than her brother Auguster (Gus) Alexander. Growing up, they became (and remained), the closest of friends. Brenda passed away on April 16, 2022, at the age of 71. She was cared for at home by her family.

Brenda graduated from Minneapolis Central High School, where she was an excellent student and garnered college scholarship offers. She formed lifelong friendships, and with her friends, started the Central Pom Pom team, performing at football and basketball games. This was the first club of its kind at the school, providing the sole opportunity for Black girls to participate in a school club. The team remained in place until the school closed in 1982.

Brenda met Millard Trulove, and they were married shortly after she graduated from high school in 1968. To this union were born four children.

Brenda retired in January 2022, after working 35 years as a public servant. Most of that time, she worked for Hennepin County in the Judicial Branch. In addition to clerking for Judge Tanya Bransford, she served as Senior Administrative Hearing Officer for over 25 years. During her tenure, she became the voice of Hennepin County. Callers to the county government in the late 90s-00s, heard her voice on the automated system. Brenda was known as a trusted and experienced colleague who cared deeply about her colleagues while administering a fair and earnest style of justice.

Brenda's greatest pride and joy were her children and grandchildren. She was supported in life and survived by her four children, Kimberly, Millard III (Heidi), Milyon (Andrea), and Brenique (Craig); grandchildren Alexander, Denver, Aspen, Anderson, and Eagan; great-granddaughter Aniya; friend/former husband Millard II; brother Auguster (Barbara); aunts Bertha, Joann (Curtis) and Teri; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the family of my friend and sister Brenda I send my deepest condolences, Love and prayers. I will truly miss Brenda she been such a great friend and sister to me over 25 years such a great advisor and listener. I am so glad I had a chance to spend time with her a few months ago I will always miss her and her smile and laughter but most of all I will miss her presence. I will never forget her love she showed me and anyone who she met. Stay strong family like I always would say to her when she speak so proudly about her kids that you were so successful and great because of all the sacrifices she did to make you all who you are today to make her proud. I know now its hard for you with your queen Mom not here in the flesh but she will always be here for us all in our heart. Much love Mona Lisa Cook
