“ Such a beautiful man with a beautiful soul! I'm trying to understand why this strong healthy Virile man is gone from this earth? Why was he taken from all of us who loved him? The only way I can imagine why he is not here by my side at this very moment is because God needed him more. God needed a leader, a fixer, a Veteran soldier. God needed a man In heaven that knew what it was like to fly and knew how to fight for the country he cherished. Brent was that man! A strong, intelligent, kind, generous, brave, handsome and loving man taken from this world much too soon. My friendship with Brent spanned over 23 years and never faltered. Brent was a wonderful story teller, he loved the 82nd Army Airborne and being a veteran paratrooper, his card games and magic tricks but most of all he loved his family. Family was the most important thing to Brent and he lived to please and to protect them. Rest In Peace my love, I'll see you in the next dimension. 🥰🤔💋❤️
