“ Charles wrote Al often in the early 2000's, then phone calls and recently texting became his favorite way of connecting with us. He shared his love of working, driving for the bus companies, being on the road, politics, and his Sister Florine. He was proud of his whole name and being a Little Brother to us. Al was Big Brother and I was Big Sister. He signed his texts: Charles D Anderson Jr. II, Little Brother with a Big Heart.

Charles had an easy smile and he always sounded caring and shared his Faith in God.

We met him first as a teenager with his Mother and stepdad Al Sr. He visited us in Oak park in the early 90's. I truly miss Charles. May his Soul rest in Peace.
