“ I’m going to miss you brother. I was thinking of all the times with our dad and all the times when we were in high school. How the girls would ask me who you were. I’d tell them you were my big brother they wanted to know if you had a girlfriend I’d tell them not at this point and time but they better grab you before you get one but just so happened you got a girlfriend. The funny thing though, they would ask is he available did they break up yet no of course not that was my response. I’m going to miss you. I’m the only sister out of our dad. But now your there with him and our mother and other siblings. You get the rest that is needed from God he’ll take good care of you. Love you brother.
