“ So many people cherish memories of you. You are so loved Uncle Chucky ❤️. You were a father, a brother, and a friend to so many people. You have served your purpose on this earth, your beautiful soul has done what it came to do and for that, I'm so proud. No more pain for you. Please watch over us. Hug my daddy for me. Love you always. 🕊️ - Your Pork Chop 🥰🥰

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.*

*I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush*

*Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*

I will miss you uncle but GOD knows I am truly happy that you will no longer suffer. You may now rest💕💕💕

*Love your niece

“ Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.

Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.

He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,

The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you, a word someone may say

Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,

That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,

And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart

And he will live forever locked safely within your heart.

My deepest condolences to the family.

Love, Yolanda Gaines

“ Uncle Chuckie you came to visit when I was pregnant with my first child. Funny story was that Kevin took you back to the house and got something to eat. While you both ate and freshened up Jayden decided he wanted to meet his momma. So by the time Jayden and I made it back to my room Kevin got there to meet his Son. You helped us out taking care of Jayden the first few weeks he was home. Thank you for everything and the children will always remember their Uncle Chuckie.

“ A couple months before your passing I would talk to you for hours while I was at work. You would tell me stories of you and my brother, you told me how much you loved my mom, you brought up stories about my cousins etc. I asked you why was it that we weren't as close as I wanted to. You told me that we were always close and that you would always love me no matter what. The last conversation I had with you was the day before you died. I asked if you knew Jesus Christ and if you accepted him as your Lord and Savior of your life, you said yes and went to sleep. I love you Uncle Chucky and I'm sorry for everything I did that you considered to be wrong. Tell Grandad I said Hi and I know you're in heaven I'll see you again.

*“ I hide my tears when I say your name,But pain in my Heart is still the same. Although I smile and seem Carefree, there is no one who misses you more than me. Remembering you is easy I do it every day, it’s the heartache of losing you that takes my breath away. Yet it comforts me to know that we will meet again one day.I will always keep your memories alive and continue to share them with this world. Love always

“ In Loving memory of my nephew, Charles Taylor II aka “Chuckie.” He was like a son to me and greatly adored. Loved having him around me. He will be greatly missed because he was a part of my heart.

I know that he’s in the hands of the Lord who judges the quick and the dead.

Our thoughts are with the Family, his wife, daughter and son.

We pray for the comforting of God’s spirit.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family.

My memories of Chuckie, is his sister Michele(mimi) was my best friend, until she passed.

On our way to school Bennett Elementary, we would have to drop him off at the baby sitters house and he used to pester us and we would all take turns beating him up (all in fun). you know how it is when you are the little brother hangng with big sis and her friends. I will always remember Chuckie,

R.I.H. love Stephanie Lewis(big Sis).
