“ Nephew I love you. You will be missed, but never forgotten. I remember when you were born. You were so beautiful, with your big eyes, curly hair and beautiful skin color. You loved all of your family and friends hard. Most of all you loved your children. You have left you earthly home to return to your heavenly home. Love you with all my heart.

The days I remember, will be the same days that will never be forgotten, the respect I always got from you, is the respect that I see you gave to everyone, now take that respect as you fly high, way up high.
