“ Mom, you will forever be Our Superwoman! Your purpose in life, while here on Earth showed and shined bright. You allowed God to use you until the end of time. You shared your life with many, you raised many, and most of all you mothered and cared for many. You walked in your strength until you gained your wings. I love you and you most definitely will be missed. Now you rest up. I will see you on the other side.
