

Derrick Thomas Mason

June 21, 1965 - January 15, 2025

Obituary

Derrick Thomas Mason was born into life June 21, 1965 on the south side of Chicago.

Derrick was the first son born to Bill and Barbara Mason.

Derrick was raised by his parents and grandparents to know and love Jesus Christ. Derrick was baptized at Emmanuel Baptist Church, attended Triedstone Church of Chicago during his teen years and became a member at St. John Missionary Baptist Church for his adult life.

Derrick attended Chicago Vocational High School and graduated on-time with his classmates after having a very difficult freshman year. He went to summer school each year to make up for not attending classes as a freshman. He was very proud to graduate with his original class mates on time.

Derrick later joined the army and was medically discharged after he was diagnosed with Crohn's disease at the age of 21. He later graduated from DeVry University and pursued a career with AT&T where he met his wife Kim.

Derrick later went to work for American Income Life and relocated to the Minneapolis area in 2006. Derrick's career thrived at AIL where he earned the nick-name Diesel. Derrick loved working at AIL so much that it felt like an extended family to him. Derrick also was very proud of being a partner and a leader of people and also, for many years, the top salesperson.

Derrick loved people and enjoyed playing golf with family and friends. He converted to become a Minnesota Vikings fan and had season tickets after many struggling seasons as a Chicago Bear fan. Derrick worked hard and played hard. He was a grown-up with a big kid's heart.

Derrick departed this life on January 15, 2025 after battling Crohn's disease for most of his life and yielding to a battle with lung cancer for the past fourteen months. Derrick had a long life filled with medical battles but he never complained. He continued to fight through surgeries and lived a great life filled with love, family and friends. He is preceded in death by his mother, Barbara Mason; grandparents, Thomas & Olivia Wade, Willie Mason and Ethel Jones. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Kim; father Bill; brother Andre;

Sister-Law Sylvia; God Sister Erika; his brothers from other mothers, Lawrence, Stephen and Chad; his in-laws Dave and Judy; his niece Gabby and nephew Rodney; his aunts and uncles, Gloria, Paulette, Brown, Charlie and Stan; his first cousins Jetaun, Kenny, Jessica, Jamal, Jerod, Toni, Montez and Joseph; his God-daughters Sophie and Gabby. Additionally, a host of too many extended family members and friends to name here. Derrick was loved by a lot of people.

May he rest in peace.

“ Derrick started as a classmate through high school and became part of my family soon after that. Derrick battled many, many health storms. His perseverance carried him through his illnesses allowing him success in his career and life. I personally spoke to him on Christmas day in which he told me he was tired. I tried to give him words of encouragement in which he thanked me for. But, I guess your fight can last only so long. Although this is a very sad moment for all of those close to Derrick, it is a blessing that he is no longer suffering. I pray for his wife Kim as she will have to continue her journey with him in spirit and not by her side. I pray for all those heartbroken by his transition that they heal in due time. May we all find strength in his memory.

*Love you and RIP,

“ I miss you so much already Derrick! I miss your smile and your belly laugh and then you would tell me to stop making you laugh cause it hurt! Now you can laugh all day with no pain!! It is still surreal that you are really gone! This is exactly why you took so much pride in what you did because you never know when your days on this earth are up!

Til I see you again! ☐ Dawn

“ Big Cuz! Growing up you would always remind me that you are the oldest grandson. Yes, you are. But you were more than a big cuz to me, you were like a big brother. We grew up together more than cousins. You were always there to help, listen when I needed someone to talk to. I will miss you saying how proud you were of me. But I was proud of you more for the strength you showed in life. No man can compare to the fight you had. Glad I got the chance to tell you I love you Cuz one last time. The void you leave is unreplaceable.

"Love you cuz !"

“ I’m so sad to hear about his passing, I love Deezele in so many ways, his sense of humor, his passion for life, is loyalty and love for others, I am honored to know D for many years, I have so many memories of him. He has been through more ups and downs than anyone I have known, he’s a true fighter, absolutely resilient, I’ve never met someone that would just continuously keep fighting and fighting and fighting, I love you forever D..... from you’re other brother D- Fat A##. Love you Deezele. .
