“Aunt Diane, your love and compassion knew no bounds. With a heavy heart, I reflect on how deeply you loved so many people. Your home was a place of warmth, your arms always open for a hug, and your heart endlessly giving—especially to children. You embraced everyone who walked through your door with kindness and acceptance, making them feel like family. Your legacy lives on in the love we continue to share with others, just as you so freely did. Rest in peace, Aunt Diane. You will always be cherished.”

“Our condolences to my best friend, Amelise Hillukka-Pargo, of 35 years, her husband Marlon Sr., Marlon Jr., Mariah (Family), Marissia (Family), Marlaya, Marjuan Pargo, and Family on the loss of her mother, mother-in-law, and grandmother, Diane Hillukka. We are here for you with a compassionate ear and a helping hand, embracing you with love and support. Your mother's boundless love and kindness have inspired countless lives, and her extraordinary legacy will continue to thrive. May God empower you with strength, comfort, and peace, guiding you through this challenging time.

Sincerely,

Dr.Fawnda Chakolis-Burt and Mr.Glenn Burt

“ Diane was my neighbor for over 20 years. Our kids grew up together and were all really close. Her door was always open and she always had her grandkids. She was a very warm, loving, and kind-hearted woman. My mom would send over baked goods for her and Donna. She was always so thankful. Gramma Diane, from all of us, we love you dearly and you will be deeply deeply missed

“ Diane you have always been there to talk to. Your doors where open to come compete and play some skipo yatzee or 10000. My mom and you competed daily to see who'd win. She's missing you. Your in peace and no more pain. You can enjoy spending time now with the family. Tell grandma Sylvia, Lisa, Talia, Phonzo and so many more I love them. ❤️ Miss you I know your smiling and watching us here on earth. You' won't be forgotten. Love you.

My youngest sister is now at her final home without pain and sorrow. I talked to her every week (sometimes daily) on the phone and miss hearing her voice. I miss her so much...words cannot convey. She was such a giver and never turned anyone down if she could help. I enjoyed so many conversations about creative designs, politics, and the world situation and we always had great solutions. I will never forget these times and her unwavering love for the Lord Jesus Christ. I loved her sense of humor and admired her inner strength through thick and thin with life's trials. Most importantly, she so loved her kids and grandkids unconditionally. I send my love and condolences to her children and grandchildren and those who so dearly loved her during this hard time.
