“ To our Minnesota Baham Family and Friends,
We realize there may be no words in the human vocabulary that will bring you the comfort, strength and courage you seek at this very difficult time. Because of the closeness you shared, we may not fully understand what you may be going through right now. We do offer our most sincere prayers extend our deepest sympathy and thoughts of Love, and peace to each of you. May you find the comfort and peace that you seek in the "Precious Memories" of the times past. "A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, and through us, they live on. May the soul of sister, daughter, Auntie, niece and cousin; Doris Elaine (Denver Brown)Hamilton rest in peace, and May Grand "Mama Elvera, Mother Vernon, Auntie Evelyn and all those gone before greet her with open arms. Surely she will not be forgotten
With Love & Sympathy,
Family Patriarch Uncle Elder T.C., wife Auntie Beverly and on behalf of the entire Colorado Family.💖
