“ its November 6th. 2023, everything still feels like it was just last week then it doesn't turn out to be. time really fly's and every second I'm missing you more and more. wishing I had a little more time with you the time I have away from you.

love, Z

“ it's a little early to be here I will admit,

but I'm sure you knew I was coming.. this is a day i'd never forget. you're the biggest part of me that means the most to me. sometimes, its really hard. To be a grandmas girl because no matter how long you live, when you leave it will always feel too soon for me. but I will always cherish the first 15 years with you. in our last five, I missed out on but the love I feel for you has always been strong. I often think about how strong you were in life, to give 40 years of your life to us. solely. An undervalued gift that is worth more than gold to me. My own personal superwoman. you will always be my #1 girl.

I dream of the day I'll be with you again. life is so under appreciated until its gone.

I love you-

XxoXo,

Little ole Z
