“ Estelle and I had emailed each other every day for about the past 5 years with few exceptions. I looked forward to checking in with her each day. I will miss that. We got to know each other and share about our families. She spoke glowingly about her family, and justifiably so. She was always positive and supportive when I needed that, and I tried to be the same for her. We also shared a mutual interest in the Green Bay Packers. I looked forward to dissecting the results of the game with Estelle the following day, and offering our Monday morning quarterbacking suggestions.

Estelle impacted a lot of people. I am so sorry for the loss you all experience. I am glad to have known her and to have had her as a friend.

Estelle was born at about the same time I married her brother Charles. Her mother Carol then moved to St Paul, Minnesota from Queens, New York. My own family began to grow in the sixties and so it was a busy time.

I regret not being present in Estelle's life. But in this her transition, her going home, I praise the life she lived, the children she raised and know we will one day meet again. May God bless her soul and may Estelle Rest in Heavenly Peace.
