“ George and I would always talk about jamming, him with a bass and me and my electric guitar. It was my pleasure to make sure there was fresh coffee made because I knew I would see him at some point for a cup and laughs. Rest in peace my friend and keep jamming. <3

“ Mr. Dennis was full of vim, vigour and vitality. He was very fun to be around. There was never a dull moment being in his presence. I know he will be sadly missed.
Looking forward to that great resurrection day when the dead in Christ shall rise and Elder George will come forth to life anew. May God continue to strengthen Mrs. Dennis his wife and the entire family, until that glorious day, when Jesus comes to take us home. Until then, may his soul rest in peace.

“ Summer 2006, I met this lively, no nonsense, humorous and straightforward landlord, George. He had a calm demeanor and was filled with humility. George was always pleasant with an infectious smile. Even if you were upset with him for whatever reason, it would disappear when you finally talk to him. I remember my first assignment from George. He said "Gregory, my "girls" are my life, please do everything in your power to protect them". By the way, his girls he referred to, were his flowers at his home. His passion for his beautiful ornamentals knew no bound. He never cared about the cost of maintaining them; once his "girls" were cared for and protected properly, especially from white flies that he detested greatly and were watered frequently. While away, George would make numerous calls just to find out if I were playing my part well and told me what he saw on the camera, in a nutshell, I wasn't allowed to have any excuse. George was not a pretender, he was sincere, he was real, he genuinely cared about people. He was a true Christian. Last year he called me and we spoke over an hour about his sickness and treatment ordeal. He said, "Gregory, I never knew I would be alive talking to you now. The minute things I would get upset about, the material things I once cared so much about, are of no significance to me right now" I have fixed my mind on another time, on another time.." To date, I am still in shock of his passing and trying hard to process this simultaneously. George without a doubt has left an indelible mark on my mind and so many can attest to that fact and I will always remember and treasure the fond memories we shared. On behalf of my wife Tameka, my children Arielle and Liam, we would like to express our deepest condolences to Sis Dennis and the other family members of our beloved, George Dennis. May his soul rest in peace. Gregory Morgan.

“ The Seymour Family is sending our deepest condolences to Elder Callmie Dennis and her family during this time of tremendous loss. The loss of Elder George Dennis saddens us. He was a courageous soldier in God’s army, lived an exemplary life, and was dedicated to God and his family. He will be greatly missed. Sleep in peace, Elder George, until Jesus calls your name when He returns to take you to your forever home.

My condolences to Callmie on the rest that George has embraced. I always noticed his calm demeanor for the time we spent in church, his deportment, in fact he was the young man i saw wears a sespenders with his suit. He al as had a way of looking over his glasses to let you get the point. When he migrated and that was in the late 70' we lost touch but on a few occasions when his family visited Jamaica I happen to met up and chat with the man. They sày opposite attrack but not in all cases because, Callime is as quite as George, but so they says. Throughout all of this let us so live a faithful christian experience, so that we like George Dennis and my mother ànd the countless christians who have been resting foe sometime will just wait for the trumpet call of Gabriel! We must so live to share in this once in a lifetime event.

“ I worked with George for the past six years at Richfield Public Schools and he was a great member of our team. Always brought a calming presence and sense of humor that we will miss. He always spoke so lovingly of his wife Callmie, children and grand children. His corner office at the STEM school will not be the same. Rest easy Sirgeo.

“ Dearest Callmie,
The loss is immeasurable, but so is the LOVE left behind. You'll get through this. What was once enjoyed we can NEVER lose. All who we LOVE deeply becomes apart of us.
The LORD is near to those who are brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed. Our HEARTS ache and we can only imagine your pain. Nevertheless, the BIBLE promises, “Blessed are those who mourn for they shall be comforted.”
We pray that God will comfort your (our) heart and keep us faithful until that day when there will be no more dying.
Sending love and prayers from the Hinds' family to yours. 🙏❤️

“*Brother George Dennis, a friend and brother will be greatly missed. On behalf of The Timoll Family I just want to express our deepest sympathy to Sister Callmie and family. I have so much fond memory of George and Callmie's family. You see in 1999 I was transferred to Minnesota for work, then while I was there I remembered this was where Callmie and George was living. We eventually found them and started worshipping at the Ebenezer SDA Church. I remember once the sun was set on Saturday after AY I use to ask George what else can we do in Minnesota? He would laugh, a few times they would take me to one of their Son basketball game. Once the sun set there was nothing to do in Minnesota as far as I was concern, Coming from New York, the fast paced City. Brother George would always sing the song "The Anchor Holds" even after I have left Minnesota in 2005 when I hear "Your Anchor Holds" I would remember Brother George. Thank God for George's faithfulness and in allowing his Anchor to hold unto God's unchanging hands until the end. Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love?
Sleep on my brother, take your rest until that great day when death would have finally died.
I pray the family strength and comfort.*

“ We at the Old Harbour SDA church are deeply saddened by the sudden and untimely passing of Brother George Dennis. His death came as a real shock to us and is only a grim reminder of the cruelty of death.

Brother Dennis was a true son of the soil, a faithful soldier of the cross of Christ and a dedicated Christian. He has always come home to celebrate with his church here for most if not every year since we have been celebrating home coming services. He and his family have contributed tangibly to the welfare of this church in many ways.

He will be sadly missed by us here at Old Harbour as his seat will remain vacant where you would normally find him on the upstairs.

We say to sister Calmie and family, take heart and remain faithful, because one of these days not too long from now we shall meet with brother Dennis again never more to part.

So, on the behalf of the Pastors, board of elders and the entire Old Harbour family, please accept our sincere condolences on the passing of your husband, father, brother, friends and well wishers.

Sleep on my brother and take your rest, soon it will be going home time.

The Bible said that weeping only last for a night but praise God joy comes in the morning..

We in the diaspora are deeply hurt by the passing of one of our esteemed members, Eld George. His death is a serious blow to our organization. When no one else was home each year end the program planners at our home church, Old Harbour SDA could be sure George would be present. Not only was he present but he gave much to the cause. Death is a demon and we can't wait to see its back. We mourn with his dear wife and family. This is intense grief, but God. Sis Callmie be assured of our continued prayers. Our hearts are broken and our spirits crushed but we say, "Even so, Come Lord Jesus come."

“ I remember every time I go to the store I have to get a tin of Milo for George because he is stopping by my house for Milo tea every morning he’s going to work, it was so funny when I forgot to get it at the store he always reminds me that I should make sure I get it for the next day. He was such a wonderful brother in law always encouraging me when things goes wrong to stay strong. I missed you so much George only God knows . On Saturday nights its so much fun when he comes over to play dominoes he always says Pansy share the food when he wins the game. RIP my brother in law. 🙏🙏🙏
