“ We all know that one day we will come face to face with our Heavenly Father and account for all we've done. My prayers to the Floyd Family who lives were shaken by such a tragedy no words can ever truly express. Gentle, peaceable, majestic are just some that could eloquently describe Mr. George Floyd. Rest up for we know March 25th 2020 became a day we will never forget.

You should be ashamed of yourself. This man has young children. You are a coward for posting that comment online hiding behind anonymity. It's so easy to post hatred while sitting at home at behind your computer. His children no longer have a father present in their life. YOU clearly have hatred and darkness in your heart as equally as derek chauvin.

This is the cover of our literary magazine 2020 in Memory of George Floyd.

Rest in peace dear George

We are in solidarity with those who are mourning the horrific killings of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, and so many others...

For change and justice!

Keep breathing and vote!

From "Let America Be America Again"

By Langston Hughes (1936)

"... O, let America be America again—

The land that never has been yet—

And yet must be—the land where everyone is free.

The land that's mine—the poor man's, Indian's, Negro's, ME—

Who made America,

Whose sweat and blood, whose faith and pain,

Whose hand at the foundry, whose plow in the rain,

Must bring back our mighty dream again."

“ My heart goes out to George Floyd's family. I have never met George, but I have fallen in love with him!! The world has fallen in love with him. George Floyd has changed the world, and I will forever be grateful to him. We were the same age...well I am 2 months and 4 days older. Lol. I just found that out 🤔 I just wish that I could have been able to save him. If I could have just been in line behind him in that store, he would probably still be here today. I don't know, but I would have tried before the police were even called. I am so sorry George that they were monsters, and watching the fear in your face still haunts me. Your soul is at peace sweetie, your gentle heart didn't go unnoticed, and your mama heard your cries. She came to get her baby!! I will continue to pray for all of you. RIP Big Floyd!!! 🙏🙏🙏

“ To the Floyds family, I'd like to give my deepest condolences to you all. When George called out for his mother I was just so hurt. I have a daughter and three bounus sons. I can't even imagine how you all must feel. I'm a City Council member in the small town of Hillsboro, Texas and i couldn't imagine if one of our officers did such an unjust like act like what was done on Mr. Floyd. I just want to say that I'm praying for you all and especially his little girl. I have a girl was also, and I wouldn't ever want her to have to go through this ordeal. Bless you and may God continue to comfort all of you.

RIH Big Floyd 🙏🙏🙏. A gentle giant that has changed the world. What the devil meant for evil, God turned it around for good. I never met you, but I felt your pain as you pleaded for your life. Not a perfect man, but one that paid for his mistakes and became a better man. A man that reached out to your brothers and sisters with a helping hand. I pray for your family as they lay your body to rest, but not your spirit. God bless you family. God has you and so does the rest of the world that are seeking justice!!!

“ *Mr. George Floyd, Jr, - On May 25, 2020, We saw you and we heard you. Millions of us saw the cruelty of humanity inflicted on you in the worst, senseless way. Millions of us are your witness here on earth - we believed you when you pleaded for your life and we know that your actions were not resisting or threatening. Millions of us will find a way to seek and deliver justice in your honor for you and your family. You mattered to all of us and your story, your life, your death, your name - will never be forgotten! We can only take some small comfort in knowing that you are reunited with your loved ones - especially your Mama in heaven. In the days and weeks to come, we sincerely hope that your family and friends feel the community's love, the global love and the commitment from near and far - to know that their special Big brother, father, uncle, cousin - was a hero in spirit and and an inspiration for change in a way that no one else could do it. You have galvanized this country, this world to see and feel that in this moment - BLACK LIVES MATTER MORE THAN EVER!

“ We never met, shared a conversation, exchange a handshake or a smile; Yet on that Memorial Day, May 25, 2020, the tragic, unjust taking of your life; we met.

We met in a spiritual unification; 8 minutes and 46 seconds of an unjust act, unified an entire world, leaving with it, an indelible mark.

All of us must now collectively harness this renewed powerful, spirit of unity to make a statement that these actions will no longer be tolerated.

We must make this country a safer, better place where your children, especially your daughter and all other children, grandchildren, great grandchildren will walk the streets without fear of oppression, racism and violence.

May flights of Angels escort you to eternity; where sorrow, injustice and pain does not exist.

“ Dear Floyd Family, We are so very sorry that this has happened here again. Please know Mr. George did not die in vain, his life will help all of us to realize the injustice of racism in this good country of ours. for All of us not just a few. May God shine his light and peace on him eternally. George T Stowe Monroe Ct.

“ To the Floyd Family,

We just attended the Home-going Service of Mr. George Floyd virtually and we were so touched and we do mourn with you today.

God has allowed this to happen, we don't understand now, but we will in His time and in His way. Hold on, a new day is coming. Our thoughts and prayers remain with you. God will take care of you.

*With Compassion and a Love for God,
