“ This is a tardy and unforgivably delayed comment. Cleveland was my brother. We shared a mother and an upbringing. He was very much loved. We were separated by many issues as many families are. He wanted to be a good man. In his youth there was good and bad. He was cared for by the children of his wife, Lois. They were priceless in his lifetime and at the time of his death. We will pray that the Lord will hold him in his everlasting arms.
