“ Aunt Helen I surely will miss your funny sense of humor. We had a special bond whenever we were together no one could make spaghetti like you 🍝. I love you and your memory will be with us forever.”

“ I have always thought that you would be able to overcome anything that came your way. You've proven that through the many strokes, breast cancer, & the list continues. However, we know the day is going to come and we are never truly ready for it. Mom, I am going to miss you and tell our other family members, who received their wings before you, to continue to watch over us and keep us safe. ❤️❤️”
