“ That was a great celebration of life for Cousin Henry. Truly one of the kindest souls I have ever met. I have some fond memories that I embrace even more these days -- We aggravated him to no end when we were kids, but he was always great to us. Later, in life as we met him in adulthood, there was nothing less than love and encouragement.

Love you guys and will continue to pray for you in the days ahead.

"LIFE IS BUT A STOPPING PLACE"

A pause in it to be. A resting place along the road to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way. We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay. Our destination is a place, far greater than we know, for some the journey's Quicker, for some the journey's Slow. And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.

(Author unknown)

"Where we are now, he once was ... where he is now, we too shall be."

I forgot to mention that I'll never forget we went to the Timberwolfs game and because Henry was known in the sport's world we got main floor seats and after the game we got to meet Jimmy Jam and Johnny Gill. Awesome moment. Thank you Henry
