“ From Facebook- Andre Cymone (Anderson)

(Ya know if you're lucky you grow up in a neighborhood surrounded by good people, kids raised by women and men with the concept of respect intact. I was lucky to have had that blessing and I know today the family and the children of such a man had to say goodbye to their beloved father and I just wanna let them know even though I was just one of the kids in the neighborhood I appreciated him. I remember one night I heard my dad callin me so I went running as fast as I could in the dark, cut through the Wesley's breezeway and literally got clotheslined. Mr. Wesley picked me up off the ground and turned me over to my dad. I never forgot that...

I just wanna say, God bless you and Rest In Peace Mr. Wesley 🙏
