“ Their are no words to describe Ingrids heart I met her once in person and it was one of the happiest moments in my life.For those who know her she took a responsibility that would forever change her life and Im sure she never regretted it for a moment..I will always love her and be forever grateful..

“ I remember the first time I met Von, known to some as Ingrid. I was living at the YWCA in St Paul. I was homeless. I was sitting in the common area digging in the ashtray for a cigarette butt to smoke. Then all of sudden I hear a voice say, here you shouldn't have to do that. I have one for you. That was the first time I met her. It showed what a caring and kindhearted person she was. She cared hard and loved hard. And I loved her. You can rest now Von.
