“ Even though I only met you once, you made a lasting impression. I loved the hair style you did for my sons wedding and for coming as a guest to his wedding. I had a blast spending time and getting to know you. I'll miss you. Rest in peace my friend until meet again.

“ I'm trying to tune into the virtual services and am unable to right now, so I'm going to write something out. As Jay's best friend from school, I was around a lot and have very sweet and silly memories of knowing Jackie when we were kids. I always thought she was so cool and lovely, and enjoyed seeing her when I'd come over. She gave really warm and wonderful hugs, just like her parents and her sibling. A day when I got to see her was a good day. She respected me for my identity and who I was and that meant a lot for a kid at the time. You could tell she was raised right. Jackie was such a beautiful spirit and person from my memories of her and my heart goes out to Vickie, Ewell, Jay, Steffan, and Jojo and Levi. I am beyond gutted to hear of her passing and in my culture we say "may her memory be a blessing." I'll always remember her as a cool alternative girl whose smile absolutely lit up the whole room.

“ I remember Jasmine's little smile and blush when her mother told me people said she looked like singer Jazmine Sullivan, and I looked at her and said, "You look prettier than Jazmine Sullivan." Always will I think of you as that quiet, sweet teen girl.
