“ Jason Jr. oh my precious, precious, cousin. You were always more like a nephew growing up because I was so close to your mom for so many years of your young life. Your smile was truly infectious, and beautiful. You were such a sweet, gentle, and respectful, young man. My heart is filled with sorrow because of your departure far too early from this earth. But I know I will see you again someday. You may be gone, but never forgotten. I love you Jason, rest in sweet peace!

“ You were such a good kid growing up. You were always concerned for others and always wanting to help. So sweet. You loved my mom Mary jo with all your heart. You took care of her for us when we weren't there and she loved and treasured you so much. You watched over your mom and made sure she was always cared for. The last time I saw you, you had so much life and energy and success. I could see you were determined to reach higher. You had the brightest smile and made everyone around you feel in a good mood. I'm sorry you were suffering . I will treasure the time I got to watch you grow from a boy to a man. I'm sure Mary jo, Sue, and grandma Dorothy were waiting for you and held you in their arms. No more pain my sweet cousin. I love you. Rest In Peace now ❤️

“ To my first love. Our daughters father,

We love you so much. And never expected for this to happen. You loved us with all your heart and never stopped showing this love. You were very talented and full of dreams. From the way you talked to the way you were capable of making us laugh we will never forget. You uplifted me so much and showed me a path that made me stronger for me and our child. I'm sadden and torn by your departure from this earth. It is with great honor that I spent these past few years getting to know you building a relationship with you, even marrying you, and creating our daughter (daddy's little girl). I wish I could've protected you from these demons that held you back from so many things in your life. We love you so much and you will live forever in our hearts. Jason Earl Jones Jr you are the light of our life please continue to keep shining on us.

“ To my great nephew. I didn't see you much but was always surprised at how grown you had become with each visit. You were always full of laughter and always had a twinkle in your eyes. I am saddened that you left us so soon. I know, without a doubt, you are in heaven with God and whole and well and full of laughter and brighter twinkles in your eyes.

To Darleen, Jason and Will. My heart is sad for you. I pray that you can heal quickly by remembering him with gladness in your hearts and the joy he brought to each of you. My prayers are with you all.

“ He was and always will be my gentle, very respectful, sweet grandson. When I needed a hug he was right there with it, no hesitation. I'm going to miss that so much because I need a hug right now. Granny Jones loves you sweetie.
