“ 🌸❤️😊 From Ronota: A friend of her family. "AuntGiGi" was a God sent. Such a sweet Woman who positive and hopeful attitude lit up anyroom and those around her. Truly a "down to earth & compassioned filled person. Who could understand & relate to anyone. She was graceful and a natural & gritty way to bring out comedy. She had a way of: "soothing a savage beast" You could'nt stay mad or bitter around such cool healing woman as GiGi Evans. Im grateful to have known her a few years. And remaining prayerful for her family's peace, strength, joy and continued faith. May Gods favor find you ever ready to be blessed again. 🙏🌸🙏🌸🙏🌸🙏🌸

“ I agree with my sister, Kitty, Gigi did have an Eidetic memory! She could remember names of people, places, physical conditions, ages, and birthdates that no one else could! I remember talking to her on the day her brother Tony passed, and the first thing she asked me was, "do you remember _____ Brewer?" Of course, I didn't remember! But Gigi provided me context, association, and relationship to jog my memory. She seemed to remember everybody whether they passed or were still alive. I agree she was indeed elegant, a perfectionist, and deeply caring. I will miss her, but she is singing with the angels and reunited with our pre-deceased family members and loved ones. Rest easy, Gigi!

My God Mother was exceptional. I will never forget her consecutive acts of kindness for my immediate family and the love she shared not only with family, but the love she shared with God. No more Pain God Mom...you will be missed but not forgotten. You are in good hands...so until we meet again rest well and ill see you when I get there. Love you

“ From Cousin Erroll. I remember her love for the Lord and her singing to the Lord. She was definitely a prayer warrior. I think it was her who sat at Mother Langums piano and tried to teach me to play "Wade in the water". Love to all.
