“ I had the pleasure of meeting Huey (John Coleman) on 2 different occasions. He was a very nice man. I often heard him talking on the phone (speaker phone) with my sister. They were always laughing and joking with one another. He was the love of my sister’s life. He called her “LittleOne” She told me that he was a very kind man, he loved his family. He will truly be missed. R.I.H. — Claire Young

“ I knew Huey many years ago. He is a person I will never forget. He was a kind man with quick wit, he never missed an opportunity to joke about my big feet!! Rest In Peace Huey...til we meet again.
