“ You were a good person with a big heart❤️. A kind soul who tried to help even when you needed help your self. I loved you when we were together and I still loved from afar how wished that you could have changed your life but it was a difficult task. We remained the best of Friends with me my family. We will miss not getting your calls on Holidays and birthdays which you never forgot. I am glad I got the chance to talk to you that Thursday evening, as we talk about you missing your family and making plans to visit for the holidays and looking for a place to live here in Chicago, for your return. This not goodbye, it's till we again. Your going home to meet all your family and friends. Peace and❤️. SANDY
