“ Dear Alyce,
When Kathryn sang in the Homestead choirs with our son, Tom, she landed in my group of girls at one of Rebecca Winnie's choir retreats at Camp Whitcomb-Mason. I remember her as delightful, blonde, committed, smiling and a wonderful addition to the group. I have two sons so was always glad to be around girls, for a while! My heart goes out to you and Kathryn's family, especially her three daughters. All of you will keep Kathryn alive for those delightful young ladies.
With deepest sympathy.
