“ Hi Everyone, I don't have as many memories as so many people, but Kristin was my cousin...Aunt Elaine and my dad, Dick (Richard) were siblings...we spent many holidays together. I knew Kristin as a warm, loving woman who could really make me laugh. When we got serious, she had smart, articulate thoughts...we didn't get serious often. She passionately loved David and Gabbie....it came through so visibly. When we were younger, I always saw Kristin with Doug (affectionately known as Dougie) ...what a fun-loving duo they made! Her career took a serious toll on her, and I told her often, but she knew the industry and wanted to be a part of it. I miss her. Love you, Kristin! Dawnie

“ Dear David and Gabbie
Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of Kristin. She and I were friends in grade school. This news brought a flood of memories- Going to their lake cabin in winter and walking on a frozen lake for the first time, getting rides to school, going to her house after school and Kristin always putting on her same favorite dress, Trick or Treating with her and her brother Doug. I will cherish these memories and may your own bring you peace.
With love and prayers,
Peggy (O'Brien) Yaeger
