“ My heart is with you at this time of sorrow. I may have not known your mother for a long time but during the time I had with her, her grace, beauty and love for you and others was apparent. When she spoke of you, the love for you always was heard in the words she spoke. Miss her. Grateful to have known her. Maureen - RSEDEN

“ Looking up into the sky we see the colors of blue and white and though at times the sky turns gray no one knows what lies beyond space. Heaven is there from what they say, but no one knows how far away. Why can't Heaven be here on earth why can't this world just be re-birthed We all wish for many things and that would be the wish for me. The moral of the story is if earth were Heaven, we'd all be together regardless.

Much Love*
