“ Lawrence I'm just completely blessed to have known you and to have been known by you... it hurts my heart to even have to write about memories with you not being here. To know you is to know what a genuine, loving friendship is to whoever you encounter! Every memory I have gotten to share with you is nothing but good times, and that helps my heart a little! All in all again I'm just blessed to have been able to be your classmate and to be your friend and I'd honestly give anything to hear you say Shawنشayyyyyyyyyyy again lol- wherever you may be I hope you have found your peace and continue to be the light for everyone! You'll truly be missed! All love ❤️
