“ The time I brought 3 home with me for thanksgiving. My auntie told 3 help yourself to some pigs feet, why did she say that. Three ate almost the whole pot. She was like n—ga I know dang well you didn't eat all my pigs feet. My auntie loved 3 instead of her staying mad at 3. She asked him to carve the Turkey. I got mad, I was like how he get to carve the Turkey when he ate all your pig s feet. He started laughing and proceeded to start carving the Turkey and eating the Turkey while he's carving. So I tried to tell on him, my aunt said leave him alone. Point I'm making every time 3 came home with me, my family loved to see him.

3 was my son Noah's good friend during high school. He had a baby blue convertible mustang back in the day that he put a lot of work into. He was very such a fun loving individual, full of laughter.
