“ Each day without you feels like an eternity. I miss the sound of your laugh, the warmth of your love, and the way you made everything seem brighter. The world feels so different without you by my side. I will cherish the memories we created together, but the ache of your absence is hard to bear. I carry you in my heart, and I’ll always hold onto the love we shared. You will forever be my companion in spirit, my soulmate forever, guiding me through the days ahead.
I love you, Bab.
Thank you, Heavenly Father, for 20 years.

“ I will miss you Michael, and all the memories, mostly hilarious, we shared. I am glad we were able to overcome and retain a wonderful friendship. I know you were welcomed with open arms by your mother and father. Kiss our daughter and look in on the kids every once in a while. You were a wonderful father, provider, and husband for over 15 years. I am so happy you were able to find happiness and love after. You will truly be missed. Your dedication to God and helping others find their way to God was admirable. I know He rejoiced when you arrived. Rest well, at some point, we will be okay here.

“ I will deeply miss Michael, his presence at family gatherings, the warmth he brought to the room, and the genuine kindness he always showed. Since I met him in my senior year of high school, he welcomed me with open arms, treating me as his own. He was truly like a father to me, always offering unwavering support and guidance throughout my adult life. Michael’s advice was wise and encouraging, always helping me grow and improve. This loss is incredibly hard for all of us. We love you dearly and will miss you more than words can say.
