“ My deepest condolences to the Brown family. I grew up with Omar and Kay-Kay. We stayed in touch throughout the years and even though he moved far away when he came back to Chicago he made sure I met Joanne. I call him my little brother because I'm 17 days older than him. And we had great memories growing up on the west side of Chicago he introduced me to Big Keith his best friend who turned out to be my first love. I really don't know how my life would have turned out if Omar wasn't in it. Rest in peace, we love you. I'll see you when I get there.
