“ Gonna miss you a lot lil cuz. I remember when I would come to chill with you almost every day. You looked forward to seeing me ride up on my bike lol in return I looked forward to seeing you say cus let's ride over to this lil chick crib. I was always say to myself (oh boy another mission) lol no matter how far away we headed out and along the way was the best part. You would have to stop and say something to everyone you could see lol rather it was good or bad some time we would detour in a different direction and never even get to the lil chick crib lol. Everyone knew that Omar was the only captain of the hood and it showed me that you don't have to be a giant to be recognized because you done it from the comfort of your own chair lol sitting down and still got your respect. The chair you were bound in couldn't even hold you down lol well I guess I'll see you when I get home one day but right now I'm still on a mission out here. Love ttyl 7/8 (Wayne)
