

Ozella Jackson

May 24, 1921 - March 7, 2020

Sister Ozella Jackson was born on May 24, 1921 to parents Ozie Bobtigit and John Wesley Horton in the region of Conway Arkansas. Other siblings born to the union were: Richard, Ethel, Charlie, Cecil, Ohie, Roosevelt, Zadad and Emma.

Considering God as the ever present shepherd of life, Sister Ozella was baptized as she took membership in the new Salem Baptist Church, located in Arkansas, at age 14. This faith in God would be the guiding principle and also illustrate the legacy of life. Mother Jackson was a faithful member of Bethesda Missionary Baptist Church in Minneapolis for over 60 years.

Ozella attended the University of Minnesota where she trained as "Beauty Operator" and then worked actively serving clients from all walks of life.

Sister Jackson was married three times, becoming the wife of Deacon James Jackson last on November 27, 1979. One son would be born to the first of her unions: Robert Burgess. Each of the husbands preceded her in death.

Sister Jackson departed this life on March 7th, headed for her home in glory. She was preceded in death by: her parents, her sisters and brothers, each of her husband's, son and daughter-in-law Tharris Burgess and great grand daughter Ashley Burgess. She leaves to share with her memories grandchildren Derek, Sean and Robin Burgess and a host of great grandchildren, family and friends. Sister Ozella will truly be missed from the ranks of her church and community.
