“ The Definition of a Father is one who is committed and sacrifices on behalf of his family,

The Definition of a Father is one who is a provider and one who provides emotional support and help his kids learn from their mistakes,

The Definition of a Father is one who takes his instruction from God the Father who seeks God in his decision-making process,

The definition of a Father is one who is intentional about being active in their child's life despite opposition,

The Definition of a Father is one who is strong, but strength often takes the form of gentleness. Tenderness is often required to make a child feel safe, protected, and abundantly loved,

The Definition of a Father is love divine, one who guides, meets the needs, cares, and disciplines,

Dad, you are the epitome of an exceptional father, one who loves, provides, and protects.

I have always been in love with you. I will continue to love you and lift up your legacy forever.

-Your Son, Anthony J. Clausell

“ My brother was no stranger to people. If you've ever met him, you would know that his personality was outgoing and genuine. We were always helping each other growing up. We entered the military together and stayed very close. To me there will never be another Phil. No one else can fulfill his shoes. He was more than a brother; he was my best friend.

Rest well my dear brother, you earned it.

-Your Loving Brother, Herbert
