“ To my best friend in the whole world I will truly miss you. I have been knowing since high school we have done so much together. I was going to name my child Raymond if the wife didn't want Fred I told my son when they were thinking of a name for their child to name my grandson Raymond but they call him Ray-Ray. Raymond, I'm sorry that you have left us I pray that God will continue to be blessed your soul and bless your family. I don't know what to do now that you are gone I will reach for the phone to call you but this time you will not answer. You were a good man, a good son, a good father, a good brother, and a good friend. You will miss me. I loved you as if we were brothers, we always were there for each other. You were a great chef. Say, hello to my mother for me.
