“ Roland is hands down one of the most humble sweetest men I've ever met. He swept me off my feet. He taught me how 2 river fish . Taught my son from a previous relationship how to ride a bike. And Taught everyone he met. Something positive. Anyone that knows him says his nickname was MacGyver. Jack of all trades.. We use 2 tip around in the lowriders hitting switches and driving on only 3 wheels! That's whT he liked 2 do most was fish. Work on his cars... And eat! We Love You Roland!

“ Roland wrote the following words to me some time ago: Grandma don't worry it will only make you sad. If you keep on dwelling it's possible to make you mad. Grandma don't worry. For there is no real reason. Be contingent on reality. There's 4 different seasons. Grandma don't worry for your Grandsons ok right now. Composed by Roland Marcel Buckner for Louise Snargrass. My Grandson's earthly struggle is complete. May he rest in the season of peace.
