“ My sincere condolences to family and friends of Ron Edwards. I sat on the Minneapolis Civil Rights Commission during the time Ron was chairman of the commission. I found him to be very passionate about those causes he believed in, especially causes that had an adverse effect on the community. I had a deep respect for his intelligence and concern for people who did not have the same rights as others due to race or other reasons that did not allow them the rights to jobs, housing, or other opportunities enjoyed by others. He fought mightily for equal rights for all. I am glad I knew someone with the wisdom and desire to make a difference. He made the world a better place because of his strong activism. Rest in peace, Ron.

“ Ron Edwards was a gifted and committed advocate for low income and marginalized people in our city and nation. He was a tireless leader who understood the arrogance of the powerful and the inherent strength of people in need. His voice, his political acumen and his dedicated leadership cannot be replaced. His passing is our great loss and he will always be remembered for his unquenchable thirst for justice. Goodbye my friend, my mentor and our rock.
