“ I remember growing up on Trumbull Sharon's little sister Yolanda and I called ourselves fighting. Sharon was not having it and broke it up. She was the big sister we looked up to on Trumbull and whenever she came to Chicago she checked on her Trumbull families. She will be missed. Rest on Sharon! 💜💜💜

“ My aunt Sharon always has my back no matter what. She was the most selfless person I ever met. Even as an adult she would always sneak $10 into my hand and say here you go baby get yourself something nice. Even though she held a lot of pain she always had a smile on her face. She knew everyone’s birthday on the top of her head. I still can’t imagine living in this world without Sharon but the only thing that helps is knowing she in a better place now.

“ Wow. I wasn't ready for this one. Thanks Sharon for allowing me to come to your house and hang out with you, Yolanda, Joseph and Jackie when were younger. Ricky was Yolandas only baby at the time and I felt really good being amongst my cousins. You welcomed me in and I will never forget it. Aunt Easter and My Great Granny Laura Ann were sisters and I was so happy to have been able to know and love you. You will be missed.

“ My sister Sharon was the wind beneath my wings. She was my unsung hero. My confidant. My coach. My guiding light. My cheerleader. My ever present hope. She is gone forever. And now comes the dark night of my soul. This void in my heart will never, ever be filled. I will long for you and miss you until I draw my last breath. No one can ever replace you. 💔
