“ When I say we should of been brothers... Fella you kept me in a lot of crazy situations that we could only laugh about later. I'm sure some of us will remember cracking grandma's vase. All the sleepovers and popping fireworks. Dude I love you and even in your leaving the physical presence, you are forever in my heart.

“ Stanley was my older first cousin. Sometimes, I would forget our age difference because he was always so cool and the life of the party during our family gatherings. He could always make us laugh! I'll cherish all the memories and family reunions we all shared together with him. I'll love you always, cousin! Rest in the arms of Jesus!

“ Lord I have so many memories of Stanley (Oosta). He and his brother were so funny together. They needed their own comedy show. My girls always looked forward to seeing them when they came home to visit. He will truly be missed by all the family. We loved our little Oosta!

“ I remember one time down at my mom house in Guntown MS., his grand mother Stanley trying to convince me to keep his big Rottweiler dog, the dog was very friendly as long as he as with me, but when he was not the way the dog look at me i knew then we was not going to be roomies. To be ernest, i was afraid. The love of dogs was passed down to Stanley from my father, his grand father Jim Smith. H e love the hunting and fishing as Stanley did. God be with him.

“ As we celebrate the life of my Nephew, Stanley O'Brien, "Ooty" Welch, I share tears of hurt and gladness. Hurt, because he left us so suddenly and gladness because God gave him to us for forty-nine years!! I know God's plan is always Full Proof without any flaws or mistakes, and I respect God's work!

Yes, Stanley I'll miss your beautiful smile, your laughter and the way you could make us all crack up (just like your Momo and brother, Undra can do as well).

You shall live on in our hearts and memories. your children and grandchildren are your legacy.

With all my heart,
Aunt "Bett." Bettye

“ This is from your Aunt Aline. If I had a dime for overtime you made me laugh I'd be rich today. If I had a quater for everytime you told me love you Aunt Tot Tot I'd be super rich. If I had 50 cents everytime you smiled I'd be mega rich. If I had a dollar everytime you sleep in my bed I'd own a hotel. And if I had 1.10 for everytime you ate my food up I would own a restaurant...Our relationship was special. You talked to me about things that was dear to your heart. Love you always. “ Stanley AKA "Ootie" we will always keep your name alive by laughing at your jokes that you and Pumpkin would have us laughing and hurting ourselves over. We knew when you all would arrive in MS at momma house we would be awaken by "Yall wake up". I could say alot gonna miss the laughter, talking about dogs and fishing. You loved life and family , yo mom, undra, your love Nancy cousins etc. Love you just gone too soon. Rest in Heaven
