“ My condolences to the family of Ternesha and all those blessed by the light God shined through her. From Sharice McCain and family.

From my youth attending church in St Paul with Ternesha, she was an example for me of what success in college and after looks like; to later working alongside her, fighting for worker rights as admin for the MN AFL-CIO board that she was a part of. It has been a blessing to know her. I thank God for her advice to me as a new mom. So thankful to be a part of those who experienced her beautiful spirit and positive presence in this world.

“ My deepest condolences. Ternesha was my colleague at the Brooklyn Park Office. She was a tireless leader for the teachers and will be deeply missed. The Osseo teachers were lucky to have her as their leader for the brief time that they did. ~Paul Seeba

“ What a footprint this woman left on this earth. Wow! Brilliant, fighter, dedicated to righteousness, mom, friend, beautiful. She was all of it and more. She was funny too. When she was running for union president I remember calling her to let her know I hoped she'd win, but I hadn't talked to her for awhile. I said, "Do you remember me?" She said, "Gur!! of course I remember you!" It was so funny how she said it. Still makes me smile. I've heard that God takes the good ones early. He sure did in this case. She will be one of His amazing angels. Sis, I hope your family knows how much you were/are loved. ~Janet Thomas

“ Ternesha, embodied the spirit of a trailblazer, inspiring us all to strive for equity and inclusivity. Her unwavering commitment to fairness and justice for ALL was a beacon of hope, and her impact was largely felt. When we needed to put on our work masks/roles across from each other, we did; but when we needed to be real, we released the masks and became ourselves.

Ternesha, my friend, I cannot believe this as we were planning on our next luncheon, I miss you dearly!

“ Words that come to mind when I think about Ternesha: fierce advocate, dedicated, forthright, intelligent, kind, devoted, fearless, and compassionate. Thinking and praying much for Ternesha's family and friends!

“ Ternesha was someone that made you feel seen and heard, and you knew you were loved by her. She was an amazing mother, friend, colleague and leader. Ternesha made an impact on all that met her, even my daughter felt loved by her and she will remember her because she played a game of Candyland with her at one of our member events. Ternesha you will be greatly missed.

“ Family, you have my condolences and prayers. Mrs. Burroughs was a fantastic teacher who brought excitement into the classroom for the students to grab a hold on. Her energy could not be matched. This world will not be the same for the people who were around her. God bless you as you grieve and always.

“ Ternesha was and still is such an important person in so many people's lives. Her intellect and strength made her a powerful advocate for teachers and students. I as in awe of her as a person. To have her smile at you made your day, and I felt so confident after a pep talk from her. I'm not sure how the massive place she filled in feminism, teacher's rights, student's rights and needs, family, friends, in her sorority will ever be filled again, but I do know that she isn't done. I know that she will be looking down and guiding everyone through this darkness until we all find the light again.

“ Ternesha was always the first to check up on me via text, email, phone or in-person no matter the time of day. Her unwavering friendship and beautiful smile are things I will miss most. I love you, Ternesha. You can now enjoy all the great vacations you desire in heaven.
