“ Nate was a beautiful person. After meeting him during his Spring Lake Park school days and working with him doing community service, I got to know his passion for helping others. He really enjoyed doing service projects for his community and connecting with young people. Nate’s smile lit up the room and he will be missed. Pete Yelle

“ Nate , My little cousin . Growing up we were more like siblings , we had each other’s backs and got in trouble together . I remember when you moved down to Florida and you called me to see if I could help you find work . You made it clear you would not settle for just anything , you were determined and head strong. I admired your courage and strength to move and experience life on your own terms . You loved hard and did what made you happy and wouldn’t let anyone get in the way of that . I am still working on accepting this , it’s not fair , it hurts and I don’t understand . I will hold on to the love and kindness that was divinely placed inside of you and that will live on for eternity. You will always be my little cousin nothing will change that . You taught me not to be fearful , to be bold , to be you with out boarders and to live life through courage and adventures . I love you Nate . — cousin Josi

“ Dear Nate,

We meet when we were in 5th grade. We quickly became best friends and through all the tough times we stuck together. You taught me how to cook (chicken, curry and rice) and samosas. We had so much fun while growing up, we played video games, sleepovers and wrestling matches between us. We went on camping trips where one you swam across the bay in Grand Marais while I kayaked alongside you. We had our own islands in Grand Marais where we hiked to and swam to. We had our ups and downs all through high school, but we stuck through it. Once we graduated, we had the world in front of us and we also started to drift apart. You left to pursue your life, but you always came back. We talked for hours on the phone about topics I didn't quite understand. I could never get to his level of thinking, but we managed over long distanced. Nate you were my only friend for over 20 years, and I will miss you to my core. I will remember all the times we had together and cherish them forever.

“ Who would ever have thought that the words "Hey Auntie" could now take on so much more meaning and be missed so desperately. Hours of debating meaningless topics or just sitting on the phone sharing thoughts or ideas will be truly missed. My dearest Nate, may God guide you into His glory. Thanking Him for all the time He blessed me with you in my life with our talking, dancing, singing, listening to foreign language songs we didn't even understand, laughing, even praying....it was all a blessing. You are truly missed.

“ Since we were kids you drove me crazy... But I didn't mean this crazy. You were one to always take it to the extreme though. I know you're okay. I will be too !!! Love you punk. Come fluff the pillows

My condolences go out to the family. Growing up Dawn was my sister cousin (she still is) and we had a lot of good times with Aunt tee tee. I'm so sorry for your loss. I wish I would've grown up with my cousin Nate and gotten to know him better. Blessings and peace to you all!
