“ I remember coming over to the house and chopping it up with laughs, conversation, a game of pool! I've always showed you respect and you liked that about me, you were one of the cool dads, thanks for sharing some memories while you were still present, I will keep them stored in my heart, Rest well

“Tim is and always will be our beautiful daughter-in-laws daddy! That’s how we met Tim for the first time. His family joined our family for a Christmas meal. I’ll never forget how God joined us together as family that year! Tim’s delightful and jovial personality, along with his beloved wife Shelia we’re always a welcome addition to the grandkids birthday parties around the pool! I knew it was hard and uncomfortable for Tim but he always had a smile and a quiet faith within. I am the bearer along with many others that will carry the torch of memories to share with the grandkids of grandpa Tim’s laughter, smile and his sparkle he had around them. God bless his family and give them grace till we are all reunited some day. I leave you with these new famous words that Tim is now saying as he dances around “look at these feet, look at these feet!”
