

Tyrone Kenyetta Brown

January 17, 2003 - September 22, 2022

Tyrone Kenyetta Brown Jr. was born on January 17, 2003, in Minneapolis, MN to the late Tyrone Kenyetta Brown Sr. and Christina Cox. His grandmother, Marie Beverly Ware-Cox and aunt Tracy Hamilton preceded him in death.

Tyrone accepted Christ at an early age at Our Saviors Ten Mile Lake Lutheran Church in Dalton, MN where he would receive his baptism. He would later attend services at True Foundation Church, Brooklyn Center, MN.

Tyrone received his education at Underwood Elementary and Middle School. He continued his education at Como High School, St. Paul, MN, but would later transfer to HSRA (High School for Recording Arts) St. Paul, MN to pursue his love for music. While in attendance Tyrone would do many projects. In the latter parts of his High School years, he and would embark upon a trip of a lifetime in September 2019 to Copenhagen Denmark under the direction of Mr. Tony Simmons; Executive Director of HSRA. During this time, he would be a supporting keynote speaker, speaking to educators from around the world. As well as observing other schools and classrooms. Tyrone learned and followed his path with dedication and determination. With this Tyrone would graduate on June 7, 2022, receiving his diploma.

Tyrone loved to play basketball, spending time with his friends, family and especially his cousins. He also loved recording music

Tyrone departed this life on September 22, 2022. He leaves to cherish his memories, his mother Christina Cox of St, Paul, MN; Grandfather Terence Hamilton Sr. of Burnsville, MN; three uncles, Terence Hamilton Jr. of Eagan, MN; Everett Ware Jr. (Marceola) of Minneapolis, MN; Raymond Cox (Tosha) of Ramsey, MN; one aunt, Crystal Cox of Columbia Heights, MN; three brothers: Damarea Kenyetta Hamilton of Minneapolis, MN; Derrick Whitney and Christian Smith both of St. Paul, MN; one sister, Terianna Glass of Minneapolis, MN; his second mother, Irena Hadzihasanovic, his best friend/brother Ali Mhamdi both of Circle Pines, MN; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
