“ *When Ty was born I was so proud to be a father to him. He was my first born and a wonderful child. He was so full of life and mischief. I can still see that little boy, who we called pumpkin, running around and loving on everyone. As grown men, he and I had gotten a lot closer as we both struggled with the same health issues. I will truly miss my son, Tyrone but I'm glad he doesn't have to suffer anymore. I thank God for my precious son, my firstborn, and I will miss you so much. But I believe in God's promise, that I will see you again in Heaven. Rest In Peace, son.
-Love you, dad*
