“ I met Bill in the '90's through work at CME advertising when he was at Honeywell, and I was still "deb carter". I was so happy to meet someone from church in the corporate world! He touched so many people with his Saturday KFAI program. He was always so up beat, positive and creative. I've kept tabs on family updates through the years. Beverly and Kenna, and grandkids, I'm sad for your loss. His smile, love of family, passion for music and art will live on in the hearts and minds of everyone he has encountered.

“ The way I will always remember Bill is him at the front desk at KFAI and greeting you with this beaming smiling eye, He volunteered for his hours to do the Front desk. You walked in and Bill was always smiling and made it a home. He made everyone feel welcome and loved, just by the way there was this little twinkle in his eye. I've never met anyone who has that until Bill. Not since. He was a whole person all the time, and gave that feeling to everyone else, he let them be themselves. That's why when I would come into the station and he was at the front desk, those were the best days, because it made me feel like there was a home, not just at the station, but in the universe because he cared about you.

His show was something to aspire to. He taught a punk to like jazz - but it was his human presence was his most important work. He found something interesting and of value in everything he saw - which also made him, on top of everything else, a poet, a parent - an amazing photographer.

Everything he pursued he did with passion and achievement. But most of all it was the way he made you want to love and appreciate the world the way he did.

Bill is a gift to life for all of us

“ Thank you to the Cottman family for sharing yesterday's tribute to Bill. I can only echo the praises of kindness, compassion, curiosity and the openness he seemed to have for "the other" that is within all of us. He was a genuine and wonderful man who I know for myself, will continue to inspire. Thanks also for helping make the world a better place to listen to.

“ So much love, so much wisdom, so much guidance. I can't pinpoint exactly when I met Bill but my life has been forever impacted from knowing him. I had a dream a couple of nights ago. Bill was building a house and I was getting ready to leave so Bill stopped what he was doing, put his arm around me and asked if I was okay. I responded, "No! I am going to miss you so much." That part of the dream couldn't be more true. To Beverly, Kenna, Yonci and Ebrima my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dearest Cottman Family, we have been one of the lucky families to have known you and Bill throughout the last ten + years. We have had wonderful times with each of you and felt the warmth and love of your support. We live in North Minneapolis because Bill suggested it when we were looking for a house. In short, you all have felt like community family and Uncle Bill was beloved to us. You are beloved to us. We breathe with you, cry with you, and send you love always. He lives on as a beloved Ancestor. Still with you. Still with us. We love you all.

“ I was only able to connect with Bill a few times in person but I understand that he was always advocating for the arts and therefore for me. Only to come to find out that he is the reason i had that aerial rig from Junauda to be able to do so many awesome things in the community each summer. This was actually the last year of using it as I'd finally purchased a new one and retired that one. Thank you for sharing him with us and my deepest condolences to the family.

“ My condolences to Mama Beverly, Sista Kenna, Yonci and Ebrima. So many of us who were cared for, accepted and understood as extended family are so blessed to have known him. Such a great man and always a calming presence. After years of being blessed to know him and sometimes, be in collaboration with him, his mere presence in a room made me better in so many ways. One memory: At Pangea working/playing - maybe 'Cactus in the Desert'. I put Bill over my shoulder and lifted him. With his signature stutter he asked on the way up "How tall are you..?" Bills' amazement, Lori's belly laugh- a moment of change. I am deeply saddened by his passing but feel so blessed that my life/artistry was enriched by being around him and the whole family. You all are real examples of empowered Black love and excellence.- Roxane

Beverly, I'll miss the sight of Bill across the alley! He was a wonderful neighbor. The two of you always reminded me of one of my favorite library patrons ever, your mother, Patricia.

Dear Beverly and family, my heart is sad hearing the news of Bill's passing. He was larger than life. A presence. An artist. A gentle spirit. A deep soul. A loving human who shared so much of his love with so many. I grieve for your loss. You two made a beautiful life together. May you find ways to continue your conversation in this transformed energy. May you find comfort in your grief. with love, Catherine Reid Day and family

Dear Beverly, Kenna, Yonci and Ebrima, I am thinking of you and wishing I could find words to show how much I admired your dear, dear Bill. He helped me be a better human. And he made me laugh. And he shared great music with KFAI and so I got to be there to hear it. And I got to meet you all through him. I am so grateful for all of that. May you feel at peace and surrounded by love now and whenever you feel the need for love.

Dear Beverly, I am alone at this moment, Alain is doing volunteer work at the present. It was a shock to read that Bill will no longer be coming our way. We will always remember the wonderful moments we shared together here in Paris, France. You were a most beautiful couple. We're grateful to have known you both. Please receive our most profound condolences for you and your family, we will cherish his way of being, calm and caring with his unique sense of humour and his love for Jazz. With our love and sweet embraces for you, Kenna and all his family, Alain and Maria

Words cannot express how hard this hit me. I have known you for what seems like my entire adult life. My goal was to grow up and be as happy and in love with life as you were. I pray that you are resting in peace as you watch over your loved ones. To Mrs. Cottman my dear former teacher I pray for your heart to be filled with all the great memories of your sweet loving husband. To his amazing daughter Kenna and his amazing grandchildren I pray that you continue to live and breathe in his awesomeness.
