“ My sweet little Zion.
When I first found out i was pregnant with you I was so scared and shortly after that fear went away and it was nothing but love and excitement. You were and still are a true blessing! When I was sad I thought about you and you dried my tears. I loved seeing you grow and I loved seeing you jump around and how energetic you were in the womb. When I saw you it was love at first sight. You are my seriously hero and my true love. I miss you and I love you - mom ❤️

“ My sweet grandson! I loved you from your first heartbeat on the ultrasound. I think of you everyday! I look at your pictures daily! How I longed and prepared to meet you! But our heavenly creator had different plans! My heart knows you're in a better place! I know you will never have a care or worry of this world! I know God can love you even more than I could! You will never be forgotten! My 2cd grandson! Grandma loves you always and forever! Rest easy in God's arms! My sweet Angel

My Zion, the 2nd of my great grand. My heart hurts every time I think of you. So much races through my mind. But the end result, you are in Heaven. What an honor. I can't wait to see you. I really can't. I love you Great Grandma.

Zion, when you left once again Our hearts were broken and our family circle was broken i looked forward to hearing your grandma and great grand ma brag on you, but now we can all brag because you came to us an angel and you left an angel and just like your name Zion...you are in the city of God and we can truly brag about that*
